

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE
Course outcomes

PAPER -1 Basic Concepts Political Science

Students will able to:

The student can draw boundaries of the Political science and other Social Sciences.

The Student identifies the significance of Political Science.

The student can classify Classical and Modern Approaches of the Political Science.

Traced out the factors the role of the nationality, nation and nationalism in origin of the modern state.

The student can distinguish the Freedom, Equality and Justice, identifies freedom and equality are both important and they are two sides of the same coin

PAPER-2 Political Institutions (Concepts, Theories and Institutions)

Students will able to:

The students appreciated the role of the Constitution in bringing changes in human life and protect the rights of the people.

The student can Differentiate the characteristics of the different form of the government

Students could compare the world countries on the basis of territorial division of authority

Students identify the features of democracy and appreciate the greatness of democracy among all forms of governments.

Students can compare among all the government organ has supremacy and known the reasons for ascending the supremacy of the Executive over the Legislature and Judiciary.

Students identify the role of the Judiciary in everyday life.

Students be familiar with Judicial review and Judicial Activism,

PAPER-3 Indian Constitution

Students will able to:

The students appreciated the Preamble and its importance.

The student can identify the legacy of the freedom movement and its impact on the making of the Indian.

The students recognized the Salient features which are incorporated in Indian Constitution.

The students knew the fundamental right show these are playing a great role in development and defending the rights of the Indians in day to day life and also the limitations while we enjoying them.

The student can differentiate the Unitary and Federal features in the Indian constitution and why they incorporate both of the minour Constitution.

PAPER-4 Indian Political Process

Students will able to:

The student can differentiate the national and Regional political Parties.

The Student can point out Indian Political system has been transformed from one party system to multiparty coalition system.

The student acquainted with composition, powers and functions and evolution of the commission from one man commission to multi-member commission.

The student clearly understood the role of the election commission from Independence to today.

The student point outs the challenges to the Indian democracy like Religious fundamentalism, Regionalism, etc.

They knew the low Representation of women in Indian politics, and understood the importance of women representation in Indian politics.

PAPER 5 – Indian Political Thought

Students will able to:

The student understood Raja Ram Mohan Roy was one of the earliest modern Indian nationalist and his political views and efforts in bringing many reforms like abolition of Sati system.

The student understood the first feminist in India was the Panditha Rama Bai and her efforts to women empowerment.

The student can give reasons to raise fanatic religious nationalism and give reasons to divide and rule policies of British colonial rule in India.

The student can compare the policies of moderators, extremists and Gandhian era of nationalism.

The student gives Reasons to the casteism in India. The student traces out the efforts of Ambedkar to annihilation of Castesystem.

PAPER 6- Western Political Thought

Students will able to:

Identify the systematic effort of the Modern Greek political thinkers like Plato, Aristotle etc.

The Student can differentiate the Augustine religious political views and Machiavelli secular political views.

PAPER 7- Principles of Public Administration

Students will able to:

The student can identify the hierarchy, Span of control, Unity of command in real life.

The student can segregate the functions of the chief executive.

The student can classify the different departments in the government

The student can compare and differentiate the Line and Staff Agencies.

The student can differentiate between political science and public administration.

The student can compare and differentiate between public and private administration.